The screenshot shows the nanoAlberta website interface. At the top, it features the Government of Alberta logo and the text "Advanced Education and Technology". A search bar is located on the right. Below the header, there is a navigation menu with tabs for "Home", "Ministry Information and Newsroom", "Post-Secondary Education System", "Trades and Education Planning", "Community Learning", "Advanced Technology Industries", and "Research and Innovation". A sidebar on the left contains a list of links including "Support for Business", "Western Economic Partnership Agreement (WEPA)", "Industry Sectors", "Energy Research and Technology", "Information and Communications Technology (ICT)", "Life Sciences", "nanoAlberta", "Asset Map", "Strategy", "News", "Events", "Resources", "Contact Us", "International Profile", and "Alberta's Action Plan". The main content area is titled "Industry Sectors" and features the "nanoAlberta" logo. Below the logo, there is an "About" section with a description: "nanoAlberta works with industry, researchers and investors to help build Alberta's nanotechnology industry and apply the benefits of nanotechnology in the energy, environment, medical, agriculture and forestry sectors." Two small images are shown: "nanoAlberta (long)" and "nanoAlberta (short)". A "Recent News" section follows, displaying five news items with thumbnail images and titles: "Hitachi Centre", "Gary Albach Citytv", "Gary & Paul Global", "Steve Price Citytv", and "Peter Hackett Citytv".
